

LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Gnanamani College of Technology has well trained faculty members to develop students knowledge in Language and communication skills. Training and English Department in GCT functions effectively and conducts communication Skill Development Training for the first year students. Training is focused on the four major components of language and communication i.e., LSRW Listening Speaking Reading and Writing.

